

Gator Dugout Days

October 17, 2018

Volume 18 Issue 14

Herreeeee Comes Coach!

Coach Kevin O'Sullivan will be our speaker on November 5th, Sal's Place 5:30 for dinner.

Coach O'Sullivan with Peyton and Finn

Coach will give us an update on the team including new players, position changes and outlook for 2019.

Arrive early so you can be finished with dinner when Coach starts his presentation.

Club Awards

Last chance to turn in your votes for the Club Awards will be at this November meeting.

If you have mislaid the ballot there is one attached to your email.

Planning of the Holiday Party is complete. It will be held in the Oak Room at Oak Hammock off Williston Road on Monday December 3.

A reservation form is attached to the email and will be available at the November meeting.

There will be toy collection for Toys for Tots, the gift exchange game and Santa with a lot of raffle items.

Because we have limited space you must pay by the November 19 deadline.

Trudy Baumgartner is retiring from the Program Chair position. Trudy has been Club Secretary, Newsletter editor, President and Past President and needs a breather. She has done an excellent job in all her positions and we thank her very much.

Her retirement offers an opportunity for another member to step forward and bring speakers of interest to the Club meetings.

It is not a lone job. Buddy Monroe, UAA Liaison and other Club members can help get speakers of interest.

We also need someone to be President Elect for 2019 and President in 2020. If you are wondering about the duties and amount of time you will spend on Club business, ask any of the following past presidents: Kat Davis, Bill Fouraker, Gordon Burleson, Karl Owens, Trudy Baumgartner, Bob Franks, Bob Smithers or Dorian Lucey.

Golf Tournament

The Board has approved moving forward on establishing a Club golf tournament for The Gator Dugout Club Baseball Scholarship.

It will be held at Ironwood Golf Course on Saturday, April 27 with a shotgun start at 8:30 am. Information will be sent soon.

We will also need non-golfing volunteers to help make the tournament run smoothly. Contact Dorian to volunteer.

Weird Baseball Trivia

Dave Winfield, a hall-of-fame outfielder playing for the Yankees in 1983, was arrested for killing a seagull with a thrown ball. The cop who arrested him and fans who witnessed the event claimed that Winfield hit the bird deliberately. But Yankees manager Billy Martin questioned whether Winfield possessed the necessary accuracy: "Cruelty to animals? That's the first time he hit the cut-off man all year!"
